

Vermont Unemployment Rate Holds at 3.6 percent in July

The Vermont Department of Labor announced today that the seasonally-adjusted statewide unemployment rate for July was 3.6 percent. This represents no change from the revised June rate (3.6 percent). The national average in July was 5.3 percent, which also experienced no change from the previous month's estimate. As of the prior month's initial data, Vermont's unemployment rate was fourth lowest in the country. July represents the tenth consecutive month without an increase to the unemployment rate.

[Vermont Unemployment Rate Holds at 3.6 percent in July \[PDF\]](#)